Foreword EHF President

Dear handball friends,

Welcome back to the EHF Champions League Men 2020/21 season as the group phase enters its second part.

One of the encouraging aspects of the season so far has been the professional and sensible way the handball community have dealt amid the challenging circumstances of current pandemic.

From the European Handball Federation's perspective, clubs, players and staff, and federations deserve huge amounts of credit for the ways in which they have conducted themselves; placing measures and following instructions to ensure matches at the highest level of handball going ahead.

As a result, the fans – the heartbeat of our game – are still able to follow their favourite teams, even if it is sadly not inside the arenas. Despite the lack of crowds, the level and entertainment value has remained at the kind of standard that we have grown accustomed to in the EHF Champions League Men.

The fact that so few matches have been postponed is testament to the hard work carried out especially by clubs, and on behalf of everyone at the EHF, we sincerely thank you.

After the opening part of the competition Lomza Vive Kielce top group A just one point ahead of SG Flensburg-Handewitt, while Barça dominate group B with a spotless record of five wins in as many matches. However, the situation in both groups remains unpredictable, meaning the race to reach the next stages will stay wide open until the very end of the group phase.

Even in this difficult time with necessary restrictions on the events, we, together with clubs and our partners, will make sure that the EHF Champions League Men continues to be seen, followed, heard and talked about as much as in the past years – if not even more. On behalf of the EHF and EHF Marketing I wish you many unforgettable and thrilling moments.

Yours in sport,

Michael Wiederer
EHF President

Prefaci del president de l'EHF

Benvolguts amics de l'handbol,

Benvinguts de nou a la EHF Champions League Men temporada 2020/21, ara que la fase de grups entra en la seva segona part.

Un dels aspectes encoratjadors de la temporada fins ara ha estat la professionalitat i el seny amb que la comunitat de l'handbol ha actuat en el marc de les difícils circumstàncies de la pandèmia actual.

Des de la perspectiva de la Federació Europea d'Handbol, clubs, jugadors, personal, i federacions mereixen un gran reconeixement per la manera en que han afrontat la situació; posant mesures i seguint les instruccions per garantir que els partits al més alt nivell d'handbol segueixin endavant.

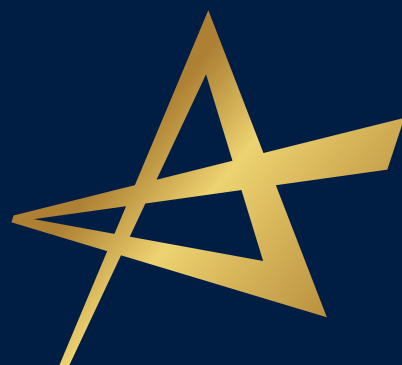

Gràcies a això, els aficionats - el centre del nostre esport – encara poden seguir els seus equips preferits, tot i que lamentablement no sigui dins dels estadis. Malgrat la manca d'espectadors, el nivell i el valor de l'espectacle s'han mantingut en l'estàndard al qual ens té acostumats la EHF Champions League Men.

El fet que tan pocs partits s'hagin ajornat és prova de l'esforç que duen a terme especialment els clubs, i en nom de tots a la EHF, us donem les gràcies de tot cor.

Després de la part inicial de la competició, el Lomza Vive Kielce és primer del grup A, només un punt per davant del SG Flensburg-Handewitt, mentre que el Barça domina el grup B amb un registre impecable de cinc victòries en cinc partits. Tot i això, la situació en tots dos grups continua sent imprevisible, de manera que la cursa per arribar a les següents rondes es mantindrà oberta fins al final de la fase de grups.

Fins i tot en aquest moment tan difícil, amb les restriccions requerides per les circumstàncies, nosaltres, juntament amb els clubs i els nostres socis, ens assegurarem que la EHF Champions League Men es segueixi veient i seguint, i se'n segueixi parlant i sentint parlar tant com en els últims anys - si no encara més. En nom de l'EHF i EHF Marketing us desitjo molts moments inoblidables i emocionants.
